

THE BULLETIN.

OFFICE—Second Street, Opposite
Cadwallader's Photograph Gallery.

MAYSVILLE, THURSDAY, AUG. 14

Those who receive a copy of the Dollar Weekly Bulletin, and wishing to subscribe will receive it regularly by remitting ONE DOLLAR.

Our terms invariably in advance.

No policy can be poorer for a business man than to go without a sign to his shop or store—unless it be neglect to advertise in local paper—it looks like trying to row a boat up stream without oars. O ye non-advertising, non-sign-erecting fellows, (there are a few such in this community,) are ye ashamed of your business. Send us your cards—"Pay your printer!"—Patronize such young men as Ross & Colvin, House, Sign and Ornamental Painters, on 2nd street, (over Gurney's Meat Store,) and our word for it, anything in their line will be done in the latest and most approved style and with dispatch.

Don't fail to read Sennott's speech in vindication of the Constitution, it will amply repay any one whose time may be taken up in its perusal.

RECRUITING IN MAYSVILLE.—The recruiting business has been very brisk in this city for the past week. The different Cavalry Companies now forming, are receiving constant accessions, and the people are responding to the call for more troops with alacrity. We notice among the companies organized by virtue of the first part of the call, and nearly full, is that of Capt. J. S. G. ROGERS, a young gentleman well known in our community for his gentlemanly bearing and good deportment. We would say to all those who are desirous of serving their country that they cannot enlist under a more popular efficient and brave officer, than our gallant young townsman. We predict for the Captain a brilliant future.

On Monday, the 4th inst., during the storm that swept over the country, the lightning entered the house of JOSHUA HARBERT, in Sardis, and instantly killed a man by the name of JESSE COMBES. Two others, whose names we did not learn, were severely injured, but will recover. Several persons had left the house a few minutes previous to the accident, otherwise the casualty might have been greater.

DROWNED.—A gentleman named HENRY KING was drowned off the Magnolia, during her up trip last Friday night. Mr. KING was formerly a resident of this city, and was returning to visit his friends here, after an absence of some years. His body has been recovered, and was interred on Monday.

We see announced the arrival of twenty-five barrels of Blue Lick Water at San Francisco, California. We wonder if it was improved by the Sea-voyage, either in taste or odor.

PENCH hath many names—the following are advertised for sale at San Francisco: Rum, Cognac, Coffee, Tea, Arrack, Whisky, Pine Apple, Strawberry Anti-Diarrhoe, Morning Comfort, Appetizer, Ladies' Tears, the latter is sold only by the bottle and warranted genuine; but as for us we prefer the Morning Comfort, it proved upon trial to be a rare appetizer.

We want no bottled tears, we prefer kissing them up just as the flow from the fountain. Our devil says: 'em his sentiments.

Mayeville Literary Institute.

It will be seen by an advertisement in another column, that the next session of the Male Department of this well known Institute will commence the first Monday in September.

The course of instruction in this Institute, is thorough and comprehensive, and embraces all the advantages of a solid and liberal education. Having been chartered with Collegiate privileges, young men can pursue the regular studies of the College course and receive the degree A. B. at its completion.—Prof. M. H. SMITH, the Principal, is too well known in this community for us to say anything in his praise, he has labored arduously to give our citizens superior facilities for educating their sons, and the high reputation that this Institute now sustains is owing mainly to his untiring devotion and unceasing labors to make it rank as the first school in our State. Those from a distance wishing to attend this Institute, can have all the comforts of a home in the family of the Principal. We hope Prof. SMITH will meet with great encouragement.

We are again under obligation to Mr. GEO. M. LLOYD, of Atchinson Kansas, for late California papers.

A Savannah dispatch, in the Richmond Enquirer of the 30th ult., states that on the previous day five Federal gunboats opened on the rebel batteries near Savannah, and after a sharp engagement, lasting five hours were repulsed.

The rebels claim to have captured the Federal garrison at Summerville. N. C. numbering one Lieutenant Colonel, three other commissioned officers, and sixty non-commissioned officers and privates.

The Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce adopted a resolution that every member of that body should take the oath of allegiance to the United States, and that any who refused be expelled.

We understand our young friend E. H. POYNTEZ, of this city, has secured a situation in the extensive establishment of Messrs TYLER DAVIDSON & Co., Cincinnati and is to leave us soon for the Queen City. We wish him all the prosperity imaginable among the Buckeyes, and we can safely say that the firm of Messrs Tyler Davidson & Co., will never regret having secured his valuable services. Ed is a young man of sterling integrity, of unblemished reputation and as a book-keeper and business man stands A No. 1 in his profession. May eternal happiness and a wife be his portion.

It will be seen by an advertisement of JAMES MCKRELL, in to-day's paper, that he will offer for sale at Public Auction, on Wednesday, the 27th of this month, his Farm on the Lexington pike, near Maysville. Also, a fine lot of Mules, Cows, Hogs, Sheep and Farming Utensils. All those desirous of purchasing a fine farm well stocked, will do well to attend on the day of sale.

An experienced male Teacher wishes to obtain a situation. For particulars, address this Office.

It will be seen by a reference in our columns that Mr. Geo. Brown has removed to the Jewelry Store, one door above Geo. Cox & Son's Store, where he is prepared to do all kinds of work in his line. Mr. Brown is a scientific and experienced workman, and those who favor him with their custom, may rely on having their work done in the very best manner, with promptness and dispatch.

The Sixth Annual Fair of the "North Kentucky Agricultural and Mechanical Association, of Mason, Lewis and Fleming Counties," will be held on the Fair Grounds, near this city, on Tuesday, Sept. 9th, and will continue four days. Very liberal preparation have been made for the accommodation of guests, and strangers, on this occasion, may expect to receive genuine Kentucky hospitality. No entry fee is charged by this association, and all premiums awarded will be paid in cash and are open for competition to the whole world! Ample arrangements will be made to convey passengers to the ground from this city and all adjacent towns.

If any of our many home readers desire a good suit of clothes, let them pay our friend LOUIS STINE a visit. We can safely recommend him as a good workman, gentlemanly and accommodating, and always ready to give a good fit or a good bargain, in fact he is the right sort of a man to patronize if you wish things done up to order and in a style to captivate. Don't fail to drop in and see him if you stand in need of anything in his line.

The Black Republicans pretend to be the main stay of the Union. They are certainly the main stay at homes.

The majority response of the Border States' Senators and Representatives to the President's emancipation address, is from the pen of Hon. J. W. Crisfield, of Md.

We have reports of the organization of a formidable expedition at Knoxville, Tenn., for the invasion of Kentucky. It is said to embrace 15,000 infantry. The military authorities of Kentucky do not credit the report.

Trying to make paper supply the place of silver is like trying to fill a rat-hole with water. It can't be done.

Indiana's quota of volunteers under the last call for three years is full. Pennsylvania's will be filled to-day.

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.
THE PARTNERSHIP OF POYNTEZ & CO., is this day dissolved by mutual agreement. Business of the concern will be settled by Jas. P. Poynitz, who can be found at the office of Patrick McCordle.

REMOVAL!
GEO. BROWN, has removed to the Jewelry Store, one door above Geo. Cox & Son's Store, where he will be pleased to see all of his old customers.

WATCHEES, CLOCKS AND JEWELRY.

LADIES THAT REQUIRE JEWELRY
REPAIRED OR CLEANED, SHOULD GO TO G. BROWN'S, in CADWALLADER'S BUILDING.

Our "Devil," took a stroll some few days since through CADWALLADER'S fine Photograph Gallery, and the muses prompted him to indite the following verses:

Do they miss you at home, do they miss you,
Yes—but a picture they have that's so clear,
And so life-like, they say that it is you,
Minus voice—and they hold it most dear.

By Cadwallader 'twas done in a second,
And sent at a trifling expense,
But its value to them can't be reckoned,
In known computations of pence.

And Cadwallader is ready as ever,
To picture up self or your friends,
In his art he's exceedingly clever,
And the sun in his services attends.
